VANCOUVER, CANADA—October 13, 2017

KRE-AT® Goes International! Founder & CEO Tom Dutta enters into a 2 year agreement with the Atlantic Speakers Bureau.

Dutta said "I am delighted with this partnership that launches my planned "thought leader" career onto the world stage. I've met many thought leaders in my career and my time has arrived to help move the world forward." "I chose Atlantic Speakers Bureau because of it's Canadian roots and Global reach including the Founder, Mr. Allen Phillips 30+ years of experience."

"The Atlantic Speakers Bureau is excited to welcome Tom Dutta as its newest member! Tom Dutta's book, 'The Way of the Quiet Warrior', is exactly what high level business leaders need in their hyper-competitive fields. Tom brings introspection and human skills together in one dynamic program facilitated by an animated, experienced executive." Allen Phillips, Founder and CEO.

Tom will be delivering what he calls "thought leader experiences" including keynotes and workshops. A business executive that recently attended one of Tom's leadership retreats and talks on Lessons In Leadership had this to say:

"Tom Dutta is much more than a motivational speaker for leaders. He is an inspirational and energizing leader himself who provides the tools and insights for business leaders. He brings a lot of realism and guides leaders on a path to true happiness and success throughout all facets of life. Through sharing his own lived experiences, he encourages leaders to explore their vulnerabilities and highlights it as a strength rather than a weakness. I recommend Tom for any leader committed to personal growth to guide you on a path to inner exploration and unlimited happiness and success!" S. Khangura

KRE-AT® is on the move and will release it's new TV Show Moving America Forward, hosted by William Shatner, on November 19 followed by a major book signing event November 24 at Indigo Spirit bookstore on Granville Street in Vancouver.
